1. GENERAL

The Perth Flying Squadron Yacht Club (The Club; PFSYC) operates primarily by volunteers for the benefit of its members. All members of The Club have an individual and collective responsibility to contribute in a positive way to the operations of The Club.

- With this in mind, and as it is your Club, please participate in Club activities and maintenance days – you get back more than you put in.

Membership of the Perth Flying Squadron Yacht Club is a privilege and carries with it a responsibility to uphold our reputation and not engage in conduct that is unbecoming of a PFSYC member, brings the PFSYC and its members into disrepute or is contrary to the Constitution or by-laws of PFSYC.

1.1 Members and visitors shall:

- a) Agree to abide by the Code of Conduct;
- b) Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others, regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion;
- c) Be fair and considerate in all dealings with others;
- d) Be tolerant of other users of the facilities and waterways;
- e) Behave in a manner that ensures the reputation and standing of PFSYC;
- f) Behave in a manner that ensures the health and safety of staff, members and visitors;
- g) Behave in a manner that respects the physical property and facilities provided by PFSYC;
- h) Behave in a manner that meets the high standards of social behaviour which are customary and traditional for sailing and powerboat events; and
- i) Not abuse or cause offence to members, staff and visitors.

1.2 The Club Member's Code of Conduct applies equally to all Members and their guests, including members from other clubs visiting The Club for competitions or functions.

1.3 The General Committee of The Club may take any action considered necessary on a reported breach of this Code of Conduct and any member found in breach may be dealt with as specified under the Club Constitution.

1.4 The Club does not tolerate discrimination, harassment, bullying, threatening behaviour or swearing.

1.5 Members must not act in a way that creates risk to themselves or others and should assist anyone in trouble if safe to do so.

- 1.6 At all times parent and guardians shall be responsible for the behaviour of their children on Club leased premises.

Any member bringing the club into disrepute may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the PFSYC Constitution. Any visitor breaching this code may be asked to leave the premises.

2. CLUB GROUNDS AND LEASE AREA

- 2.1 Members will respect equipment not belonging to them and will be held responsible for any losses or damage caused by them or their guests.
- 2.2 No member will reprimand a Club servant. If a member has any cause of complaint please bring it to the attention of the General Manager or General Committee in writing.
- 2.3 No gambling or betting is permitted on the Club premises, unless sanctioned by the Lotteries Commission and Licensing Court.
- 2.4 The environmental protection of the foreshore and waterways of The Club is vital so littering or discharge of waste material from a vessel is not permitted.
- 2.5 Members who bring dogs into the Club grounds are expected to be conversant with, and adhere to, the relevant Council By-Laws for the Nedlands foreshore.

3. ADVERTISING/COMMERCIAL

- 3.1 Any advertisements for goods or services offered by members may only be positioned on the notice board allocated for this purpose.
- 3.2 Corporate Members or Club Sponsors may display advertising material on approval from the General Manager and in accordance with their sponsorship agreement.
