COVID-19 Information to Members – July 6, 2021

Dear Member,

As per WA State Government's recent announcement regarding the easing of COVID-19 post-lockdown restrictions from 12:01am Tuesday 6 July, new restrictions will be in place until 12:01am Monday 12 July. These restrictions include:

- Everyone must continue to wear a mask indoors. Masks are no longer required outdoors where it is possible to remain physically distanced from others, or during vigorous physical exercise indoors or outdoors;
- Limit of 30 visitors to all homes;
- Up to 150 people for outdoor gatherings and at Venues;
- Two square metre capacity rule;
- Standing service allowed at hospitality venues;
- Indoor community sport and fitness classes can resume;
- Anyone who has left Perth and Peel since lockdown commenced may visit hospitality, entertainment and recreation venues, but must continue to wear a mask in line with the rules for Perth & Peel.

What does this mean for the Club?

- The Clubhouse, including the Members Lounge will remain open for business as usual;
- Two square metre rule applies;
- Standing service allowed;
- Bookings are essential.

We look forward to seeing you back at the Club.

Yours Sincerely

General Committee

Perth Flying Squadron Yacht Club
